Atlas- July 18, 2010

The Sackets Harbor Historical Society continues its 26th season of the Concerts on the Waterfront on Sunday July 18 with a performance by ATLAS, the big and brassy band that is one of the all-time favorites in this series. Atlas highlights 20th century music ranging from Earth Wind and Fire and Tower of Power to Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett to the Motown Era.

Formed in 1981 as the Atlas Linen Company, the nine piece lineup includes founder George Feldman on the trombone, John Kowalczyk on the trumpet, Gerry More on the saxophone, Anthony Gordon on drums, Ronnie Dorsey on bass, Peter Isaac on guitar, Eric Miller on keyboard, and Andre Johnson and Julianne Holiday on vocals. "We love to come to Sackets" says Feldman. "There's such a range to the audience, and we play to that, with swing to pop."

This is the ninth year that Atlas has appeared in the Sackets series. Its blend of Motown, oldies, big band, jazz and disco is one of the most popular events of the summer.

The Concerts on the Waterfront is a free program of the Sackets Harbor Historical Society. Major sponsors for the series are the Watertown Savings Bank, the village of Sackets Harbor and the Town of Hounsfield Committee for the Advancement of Tourism. This event is made possible, in part, by the New York State Council on the Arts (NYSCA) Decentralization program, administered in Jefferson, Lewis and St. Lawrence Counties by the St Lawrence County Council on the Arts. Additional support is provided from businesses and organizations throughout the North Country, and our tradition of "Pass the Hat".

All concerts are held from three to five o'clock on Sunday afternoons at the Battlefield. Bring a blanket or lawn chair, picnics welcomed. Rain site is the United Presbyterian Church.
